
Notes from the Health Sciences Library - March 2, 2022

1 message

Mary Cabral <mcabral@clarkson.edu>
To: Mary Cabral <mcabral@clarkson.edu>

Wed, Mar 2, 2022 at 9:28 AM

Event Spotlight

The 95th annual meeting of the American Association for the History of Medicine (AAHM)

< April 21-24, 2022 in Saratoga Springs >

The Local Arrangements Committee for 2022 invites you to visit a town with the motto Health, Horses, History. We hope you will join us and “take the waters.”

Check out the preliminary program to see the variety of interesting topics that will be explored.

If you are unable to attend in person, there is an online participation option, the cost of which is very reasonable, especially for students.

Some related sites to explore:

National Library of Medicine \(NLM\) : History of Medicine

This site offers a large selection of really cool online collections & exhibitions you can explore, including archival manuscripts, films, rare books & journals, and recorded NLM History Talks.

Johns Hopkins Department of the History of Medicine

Founded in 1929, this is the oldest academic department of the History of Medicine in the English-speaking world, dedicated to scholarship on the histories of medicine, disease, the health sciences, and their relationships to history.

Mayo Clinic Library : History of Medicine Resources

This site offers links to many historical collections, online finding aids, other related organizations, as well as lectures, podcasts, and online classes.

History of Medicine & Medical Humanities

This site is designed to gather resources in medical humanities for students, scholars, physicians, and the general public for learning, exploration, and research.

Have ideas for topics or events you would like to see highlighted in Weekly Notes? Please let me know!

Read Weekly Notes from previous dates.

Mary Cabral, MLS

Health Sciences Librarian

Clarkson University Libraries

315-268-4462

mcabral@clarkson.edu

My work schedule is Monday - Thursday 8am-4:30pm. Please contact me to arrange meeting or class times outside these hours.

Want to meet with me? Check my calendar to set up a Zoom meeting.